With the recent real estate crisis, foreclosures and short sales have become hot topics in the real estate industry. Foreclosures and Short Sales: Dilemmas and Solutions provides students with the necessary background information to understand why foreclosures and short sales have become more prevalent in most markets.

Participants will learn:

- How did we get here
- Flipping
- Fraud and Predatory Lending
- Foreclosures and REO Listings
- Valuing Foreclosures
- “As-Is” vs. “As Repaired”
- 1004MC Form

REGISTRATION CLOSSES AT CLASS START TIME,
AND YOU MUST BE SEATED AT THAT TIME IN ORDER
TO RECEIVE CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT FOR THE COURSE.

NOTE: At the time a GHAR member registers for a class, he assumes payment responsibility for that class. GHAR members may pay tuition (class fees) at the door. Non-members must pay at time of registration Tuition must be paid in full prior to the start of a class. Tuition payments are refundable if 48 hour cancellation notice is given. If a student leaves after a class begins, no portion of tuition is refunded. Students must have registered, paid for class, and be seated at the advertised class start time in order to be admitted to the class. Late arrivals will not be seated, and will not be entitled to a refund. If the School finds it necessary to cancel the entire course, the full dollar amount of any payment will be promptly refunded. If the School cancels a portion of the course, the unused portion of the tuition may be credited towards a future course or refunded. No portion of the tuition will be refunded after class day begins.

In order to better accommodate your needs, please be sure to notify us in advance, if you have any disability which will require special auxiliary aids and/or services at this event. Payments to the Greater Harrisburg Association of REALTORS® are not deductible as charitable contributions for Federal Income Tax purposes; however, such payments may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses.
